THE PARISHES OF BRANDESTON AND KETTLEBURGH

A letter from the Rural Dean

Dear friends

I was just about to start typing this on the computer when - once again - the power went off. I guess we're getting used to it, but it's still a nuisance. It's far worse, of course, for those whose livelihood depends on chill-cabinets, freezers and the like. One just hopes that the hospitals have their own generators in good working order - but I guess they still have to do some serious prioritising.

How much there is that we take for granted and miss when it is suddenly taken from us - albeit temporarily. But perhaps it might make us redirect our thoughts for a moment towards those who would be grateful for any warmth at all - let alone an electric heater; or any food at all - let alone a hot meal. As I stare out through my study window at the trees bending in the wind and the rain spattering the glass, I am grateful for the brick walls and double-glazing separating me from the elements - a good fortune not shared by those who huddle together in refugee camps or shop doorways.

We may have no simple answers to such huge problems, but Christian folk should never let their consciences be dulled by distraction or quelled by some kind of 'justification'. The Jesus to be found in the Gospels constantly challenges our complacency, and I don't think he would have much sympathy for our petty inconveniences.

So - having written this with a pencil and paper - I shall light a candle, check on the tropical fish and have a think about a sermon, before hopefully the lights come back on!

With best wishes
Stephen Brian

Note from Deirdre: All readers who attend Church will know who Stephen is, but for those who don't, he is Rector of the Earl Soham large group of parishes, and also our Rural Dean. Part of his duties in this role is to have oversight of parishes that are vacant, that is without a Stipendary Incumbent. And this means that he is legally 'in charge' of our 7 parishes while we wait for Harry's replacement, and he will be writing other occasional letters for our magazines during the year.

GERARD TREVOR HOLLEBONE

Sadly we record the death of Gerry Hollebone, aged 101 years, who died at Foxearth Lodge Nursing Home, Saxtead, on November 27th 2013. A funeral service and celebration of his life was held at Seven Hills Crematorium on Thursday December 12th followed by a reception at the home of his daughter Cara; Grover House, Riggle Street. His grandchildren, Daniel, Connor and Rebecca, all took part in the service.

The life of Gerry Hollebone:

Gerry, known affectionately to his grandchildren as “Panka” was born in Claygate, Surrey on the 3rd of September 1912. He attended Charterhouse Public School and from there on to University at Trinity College, Cambridge, where he studied Economics and History. It was here that his excellence in sports gained him a ‘blue’, that being the highest honour that may be bestowed on a Cambridge sportsman or sportswoman.

Gerry then headed for the City where he started working for the stockbrokers Scrimgeours. Inevitably this led him to following in his father’s footsteps and gaining qualifications as a stockbroker; a career which he followed until eventual retirement.

During the 2nd World War he served as a Captain in the Royal Artillery and for a short time was based at a Divisional HQ at Brandeston Hall, then owned by the Austin family. It was here that he met one of the family, Bea (Eileen), fell in love and they married at Brandeston Church in 1940.

Both during and after the war Gerry had a number of overseas assignments, to India initially with the military and subsequently following his career as a stockbroker before settling down in Chelsea where their only child, Cara, was born and brought up. Eventually they moved to Wenhaston, near Halesworth, where Gerry took up golf and gardening. Sadly in 1996 Bea passed away. Following this he moved to Larks Rise in Halesworth where he remained until moving to Brandeston in 2005 to join his daughter and family. He received his message from the Queen on his 100th birthday and celebrated this event at Brandeston Village Hall with his family, friends and in particular his lifelong friend Ann Kemp – Gee. About 2 years ago it was necessary for Gerry to have some nursing care and for a period of about 18 months he was excellently cared for by Laura Meadows whom he loved dearly. However at his own suggestion he moved to Foxearth Lodge nursing home in January this year, where he received splendid care until his death.

He is survived by his daughter Cara, her husband Kevin and grandchildren Daniel, Connor and Becky.

We give thanks to God for his life. May he rest in peace.

Lastly values of life - he would always carefully share with the grandchildren their life; they enjoyed that, learned from it and always thank him for that.

Gerry was a man of honour who spent his whole life in the city with J. and A. Scrimgeour, stockbrokers. A colleague wrote about him “those were the days when my word really was my bond” – Gerry was the epitome of it.

Several people in the village knew him; his special friend was the late Dr. Anthony Fletcher, they went to the same school, Charterhouse; they could be seen each with a half pint at the Brandeston Queen.

Let me share a few more personal thoughts and memories of Gerry. Father and grandfather as most of us think of him as; but friend and colleague too. At home always available for his grandchildren; they could go and get advice from him, share a problem, confess. He was quite capable of telling them when he'd had enough, and they should leave him.

Gerry taught Daniel to play chess – he has happy memories of this. He did crosswords from the paper. He would phone his friend Ann in London for help and question Laura Meadows, his devoted general helper. He was desperately keen on birds around the garden and the seaside, when he could drive, and football – a keen Chelsea supporter and would go up to Craven Cottage to see them in his younger days.

We send our love any sympathy to cara and her children; our prayer is that they may know God's love and peace.

11 March		Start of Lent Course – see below
Tuesday 3 rd June	10.30am	Cats' Protection Coffee Morning – see below
Saturday 28 th June		Brandeston Fete – see below

LENT COURSE 2014

There will be a Lent course as usual this year, for everyone from the seven parishes starting on Tues 11th Mar. It is called 'A journey to the Cross' and is based on art work produced by the Benedictine Sisters of Turvey Abbey.

We will be looking at two or three pieces of their art in each session, all of which are accompanied by prayerful meditations on each of the images, plus scripture readings and music. Think of Stations of the Cross, only we will be sitting in front of a TV or other means of projection.!

I have booked the meeting room at Hacheston, for 11th, 18th, 23rd March and 1st and 8th April but this course would work equally well if someone had a large screen TV and DVD player, plus a sitting room large enough for people to gather around it.

So any offers would be appreciated, and that way we would not be limited to Tuesday evenings, which has been chosen as it is the only night the hall is available. If you can help in any way please call me

Mr Bill Clark will provide entertainment once again on his street organ, which was much enjoyed last year. There will be stalls and a draw.

Suffolk Historic Churches' Trust: Bike Ride Results for 2013

This report is rather late because I was waiting for the total to reach £140,000 which it just now has. It is a fall since last year's £155,000, but still a good effort given the current financial climate and huge competition these days from other sponsored bike rides. We started this form of fundraising 32 years ago and it has not gone unnoticed-flattering, but not without cost to us. Our area, or Deanery, of Loes, has had a fantastic result: £12,633, the highest by far in the county. Well done all of you. We also have the most churches open, 32. Our parishes have more than held their own, with many increasing their score. Particular congratulations to our big hitters, Brandeston, Parham, and Rendham who all made four figures and Kettleburgh, Framlingham, Wickham Market and Helmingham, who consistently score highly year after year. It is all down to your hard work, the enthusiasm of the riders and the generosity of their sponsors.

AN UPDATE FROM THE KETTLEBURGH GREEN TRUST

The Trust committee met in December for a festive get together to plan the year ahead. We had a very useful brainstorming session for fundraising ideas and strategies for getting the money needed to maintain the Green every year. There were some excellent new ideas which we hope to implement in 2014. You don't need to be a member of the Trust to submit your thoughts or ideas about the Village Green. Just email the Chair at kgtchair@wheeler-rowe.com. Minutes from the meeting are available on the KGT section of the village website.

With funds depleted due to fundraising activities having to be cancelled, the Trust members were very happy to receive a welcome donation via BT's MyDonate service from a local donor. This sizeable amount will go a long way to keeping the Green looking its best in 2014 but we still need more. It's very easy to help the Green if you don't have the time to volunteer. You can donate via MyDonate, and if you're a taxpayer, the Trust, as a registered charity, can benefit from Gift Aid.

<https://mydonate.bt.com/charities/kettleburghgreentrust>

The Trust is always keen to encourage community involvement in the day to day management and future of the Green. We are updating our Constitution and Trustee job description so you can see what's involved in becoming a trustee or member of the Trust. These will be available on the KGT section of the village website.

<http://kettleburgh.onesuffolk.net/kettleburgh-village-green>

The KGT Lottery is an easy way of helping raise funds for the Green and there is a chance you could win a cash prize in the monthly draw. You just pay £12 for a number (or more) for the year (starting April) and that's it! For more details, or to join, email the Chair at kgtchair@wheeler-rowe.com.

Best wishes for a happy and prosperous 2014

STEP OUT FOR ST ELIZABETH HOSPICE'S WALK OF THOUGHTS

Join St Elizabeth Hospice for a peaceful and reflective walk around Fynn Valley, Ipswich, to remember a loved one or to simply enjoy the countryside.

The eighth annual Walk of Thoughts will take place on Sunday 16th March and walkers can take a three or five mile circular walk, starting from YM RUFC Rugby Club in Rushmere St Andrew.

Beforehand, there will be an informal remembrance service at 10.15am, giving walkers, not just those touched by Hospice care, time to reflect and remember loved ones.

Walkers will be invited to write the name of their loved one on a pebble, provided by the Hospice, which they can keep. Participants will also receive a bookmark containing seeds which they can take home and plant in their loved one's memory.

The event attracts keen walkers, as well as those remembering loved ones, and participants are encouraged to raise sponsorship.

St Elizabeth Hospice's Events Fundraiser, Leanne Carhart, said: "The Walk of Thoughts is an opportunity to remember a loved one or friend or to simply enjoy a walk and stunning scenery.

"We encourage walkers to raise sponsorship and if a walker raises £52 that could help fund a visit to a patient's home for an hour by our Hospice at Home nurses. All money raised goes towards enabling us to provide local Hospice care for local people."

The walk is open to people of all ages and dogs are welcome, providing they are kept on leads. The route is not suitable for wheelchairs or buggies.

Walkers can register in advance or on the day from 9.30am, ready to set off for the walk at 10.30am. Registration fees are £12.50 in advance or £15 on the day, and is free for under 16s.

For more information or to register online, please visit www.stelizabethhospice.org.uk or contact the fundraising team on 01473 723600 or email fundraising@stelizabethhospice.org.uk

It costs £9.1m a year to run St Elizabeth Hospice, and the money raised will go towards helping provide services free of charge to people in East Suffolk and South East Norfolk living with a progressive illness and supporting their families.

ANGLIAN WATER

At a recent public meeting with Anglian Water in Brandeston, the subject was drainage and sewage discharge, Riparian ownership of watercourses was mentioned by AW staff. For those who may have such ownership, the following notes may be helpful

Riparian roles and responsibilities:

An ordinary watercourse is deemed to be all rivers and streams and all ditches, drains, cuts, culverts, dikes, sluices, sewers (other than public sewers within the meaning of the Water Industry Act 1991) and passages, through which water flows that is not recorded as Main River by the Environment Agency.

Riparian Owners

If you own the land adjacent to an ordinary watercourse, it is presumed that you are the riparian owner for this stretch of the watercourse, unless it is known that the ownership is in another person(s) name.

All riparian owners have rights and responsibilities and these are highlighted below;

Rights as a riparian owner:

- Ownership of the land to the centre of the ditch; unless it is known to be in another person's ownership;
- To receive water from upstream, without interference to its quality or quantity;
- To protect your property from flooding and erosion. However, this will most likely need prior consent from your Local Authority and/or the Environment Agency (please check before works start).
- To fish within your boundaries of the watercourse, subject to Environment Agency rod licensing.
- To abstract up to 20 cubic metres of water per day for domestic or agricultural use. Anything over and above this will require prior consent from the Environment Agency.

Responsibilities as a riparian owner:

- To pass on flow without interference to its quality or quantity.
- To accept flood flows through your land, even if it is caused by inadequate drainage capacity onwards of your property.
- To maintain the beds and banks of the watercourse in its natural state. (This includes trees and shrubs that may be growing on the banks).
- To keep the channel clear and free of all debris, even if the debris did not originate on your land.
- Not to cause any obstruction to the passage of fish.
- To maintain any structures that you own such as culverts, trash screens, weirs, or mill gates etc.
- To take responsibility for protecting your property from seepage through natural or man-made banks.
- You may have flood defences such as walls and embankments on your property, which are vital for the protection of yourself and others. This should be discussed prior to works commencing.
